New Business:

- A meeting outside of Tokyo is listed, but the ZOOM link is not included. Rather, access must be requested through the group's website (link on Tokyo AA.) Intergroup members discussed if this violated our website's third tradition. A proposal was suggested to reword the tradition statement that only Tokyo meetings don't require permission. Members also discussed if meetings outside of the Tokyo area need to be listed on the website. By the end, the group seemed to veer towards leaving the website as is. The discussion was tabled for the next meeting.
